

HEALTH MINISTRY TEAM INSPECTS MEDICAL COLLEGE OVER MCI CASE

PATIALA: A Health Ministry team on Thursday inspected a medical college and hospital here and scoured its records in connection with the alleged Rs 2-crore bribe paid to Medical Council of India (MCI) chief Ketan Desai for getting sanction to enrol students. The members who were accompanied by officials of Punjab government, checked the records of Gian Sag Medical College and Hospital in Ramnagar-Banur, sources said. Desai was arrested along with three others for allegedly receiving the money from the college. — IAN
